lem with the illegal dumping of garbage was discussed at a meeting on Monday. June 14. and Judge Gary MacAlily stated that unless the county began prosecuting violators under a more widespread statute, it would not get any convictions in court.

Kenneth Ball, of the County Health Department and the Coffee County Commission, was called after the commission received a letter from the Attorney General concerning the large amount of garbage being dumped in ditches and drainage ditches throughout the county. The letter reminded the commission of its obligation to keep the areas clean, and thus, the meeting was called to discuss the legal aspects of enforcing the statute against dumping.

"The problem is it is hard to prove the actual person charged did indeed dump the garbage," said MacAlily. "You must prove the person threw or put the garbage along the roadway, and it is hard to prove! People come to court and claim they didn't actually place the garbage in a ditch or on the roadway. and as long as the commission works under its current statute, you must have an eyewitness or concrete evidence to get a conviction."

t seems at times that ye ol' editor spends more time correcting mistakes than plowing new ground. This week we are at it again. The story unfolded rather suddenly last Yours Truly had returned late Wednesday night from Texas and was suffering from what a big wheel would call "jet lag." However, I was just plain tired and a big groggy. Lamar Rainer calls and says something about us letting out the secret of "the Israeli troops invading Northern Ireland." We we ain't sure just what he said or how we responded, but we were surely at a disadvantage; 'cause we have to get a running head start to even stay even with Rainer in normal times. Now, here we were, not aware of our movement of the war from Lebanon to Ireland, tired and a bit more confused than normally, and here was the president of the bank calling our hand on either our writing of news articles, bouncing checks - or something. We have been in this business forever, but it still feels funny to mail out the newspaper for all to read and then find ourselves with egg on our face from stupid mistakes. We know where the Israeli troops are fighting, and so does our

We did return from our trip to study the Texas lignite as scheduled, and with a strong belief the same thing is possible and practical right here in South Alabama. It takes a pile of money and probably even more finely-tuned brain power to successfully get such a project off the ground, but it can be done. We saw not only lignite coal royalties, but new schools. hospitals, etc., from the extra tax money, plus over 500 jobs as direct results of this activity.

The British have won at least this round of the battle for the Falklands, with the British flag now flying over the last stronghold of the Argentine military. However, this doesn't guarantee there will not be continued battles over the South Atlantic islands during the next hundred years. It can't really be over, 'cause the U.S. Government hasn't even sent any 'advisors' to the area vet Alabama Attorney General Charles Graddick ruled this week on a matter that could have an immediate effect in Coffee County. He decreed that the Mobile County Commission has the authority to levy a special tax for jail renovation or construction. This means that, even though we voted down a sales tax for this purpose in Coffee County, the commissioners apparently can still impose a tax to build the proposed jail in New Brockton. Graddick also said it is illegal to split a purchase into separate deals to get around the ompetitive bid law. We knew this, but sometimes see government agencies try it to buy where they want to buy.

The folks in the Lee community have got a problem. They want a community water system and have been trying for years to do something about it. They have also tried to interest Elba in running water to them. Each time Elba Water and Electric hires engineers to draw up plans, they hit a snag. The cost of running the lines, pumps, etc., goes through the roof because only about 50 people would be on the water line, and to date they have been unable to get any grant money from the feds to help with the cost.

We are kinda proud to be a flag-waver, even though it is a bit old-fashioned. Therefore, it does us good to see folks that routinely display the American flag. Recently the local hospital put a new flag pole into use, and they were followed in short order by Elba City Hall. If we look around town, we find there is a good number of folks who are proud enough of being Americans that they fly the flag every day. Salute

School Board Discusses

Budget, Accepts Retirement

The Elba City Board of Education met on Tuesday afternoon, June 8, and unanimously appointed Paul King to serve as the Board chairman, with Lois Holt to act as vice-chairman. Present at the meeting was Supt. John Osburn and Board members Butch Oggs. J. Doug Kendrick. Gladys Yelverton, Lois Holt and Paul King. Following the reading and adoption of the minutes of the previous meeting, the Board welcomed new member Butch Oggs and then got down to work. The first order of business was to discuss the Board's financial status, and Supt. Osburn passed out detailed vouchers to all members. "The voucher is self-explanatory. said Osburn, "but I will be glad to assist you in any way to make you better understand it. The Board now owns the new addition to the school. The final bill to the contractor has been paid off. You will notice an accrued deficit of $42,000 as of May 31 in the report, but this is an accrued deficit. We are now living within our budget. We aren't to the point of reducing the deficit. However, we are working within our budget and

I don't have any notes written down this week to help me along, so, I'll just have to jot down what pops in my head as I go. Oh, well, let's get started

An incident occurred in the Dixie Youth League last week that embarrassed me, both as a DYL officer and a friend to many fans watching the game. A game went right down to the wire and in the seventh inning the winning run scored on a very close play at the plate. A coach for the losing team charged out of the dug-out to argue the call and several Astros 10 continued to tell him how poor his call was. I didn't see the call, and all I know is that the umpire honestly thinks he made the right call. And a judgment call is just that, a man's honest judgment. However, the action of the coaches and parents can't be overlooked. The young placers look up to their can't be overlooked. The young players look up to their coaches and parents as examples, and copy their actions. I just hope the youngsters who played the other night realize the adults were wrong and don't improve and according to the coaches and parents. The privates first blood only Yankee hits.

The Elba Softball Classic is coming up next weekend and right now it looks like our strongest tournament ever. Teams already entered include Andalusia Coop, Cook Technical (Old Johnson and Chris Thomas Andy Merchants), M&S, Milliken Carpets, Longbranch, got one hit apiece for the less-Jordan, Jay Bulls, L&L Paints, Northwest Florida Office Pirates. Supply, Lake City Travellers, and Willies, not to mention Elba's top teams. We'll draw up the bracket this weekend and let you know something about all the teams in next week's
